

International Wheel
Gymnastics Federation

Head of Cyr Wheel 2023+

The IRV is looking for a volunteer to lead the continued development of international competitive Cyr Wheel activities from 2023.

Task description:

- Lead preparations for future IRV Cyr Wheel World Championships with a point of departure in the current IRV Cyr Wheel Regulations
- Lead the continued development of the IRV Cyr Wheel Regulations, including planning and implementation of judges' training
- Further develop the Cyr Wheel "Battle" concept for use within the framework of international Wheel Gymnastics events

Desired qualifications and background:

- Motivation and enthusiasm for the task at hand - a burning desire to sucCYRd 😊
- Ability to work well (both remotely and in person) in an international team where English is the main working language and team members are spread around the world
- Sufficient knowledge of Cyr Wheel to take on the above-mentioned responsibilities

What the IRV can offer:

- The opportunity to work with a highly motivated international team of wheel gymnastics enthusiasts
- Fully financed attendance at IRV Wheel Gymnastics World Championships where Cyr is part of the competition programme
- Support from and cooperation with IRV core team members with knowledge of the current Cyr Wheel Regulations and online database

How to apply:

- Send a letter of motivation to msollohub@wheelgymnastics.sport
- Include relevant experience for the task description above
- Applications will be evaluated on a continuous basis
- If you have any questions, please contact Maria Sollohub (msollohub@wheelgymnastics.sport or tel. +47-91585623)

Application deadline: 31 January 2023
