IRV Newsletter September 2026

Dear Wheel Gymnastics Community,

Sometimes we do not see the wood for the trees. This was the case for me this summer, when I was so close to all the goings-on at the Wheel Gymnastics World Championships 2026 in Göttingen, Germany, that it didn't even occur to me that some people might have missed it.

Individual World Championships 2026 Videos

If you have indeed missed it, or if you want to re-live the moment, you can go and check out the numerous live-streams of the different competitions we enjoyed there. You can also find the results from the competition linked to below:

Difficulty Catalogue Outlook

In case you have missed it: We have presented an outlook on the Difficulty Catalogue's development and timeline with a Q&A. You can find that recording here:

Recording of Presentation and Q&A

The team has continued to work hard on the development and I am looking forward to sharing more with you very soon!

Team World Championships 2027 Date & Teams

As you will know, the 2027 Team World Championships will be held in Salzburg, Austria. We have a small announcement in regard to this, namely that the competition the senior teams and the junior teams will both be taking place on Saturday 22.05.2027.

Since Austria has decided to nominate a junior team (the regulations allow the host of the Team World Championships to participate with at least one team), we can now list the whole set of invited teams:

Junior Teams:

- Israel
- Germany
- Switzerland
- Austria

Senior Teams:

- Germany
- Switzerland
- The Netherlands
- Japan

Upcoming IRV Certified Competitions

And last but not least, I want to draw your attention to two IRV Certified Competitions that are coming up:

Danish Open – 31. Oct 2026

Austrian Open – 21. Nov 2026

Kind regards,
Matthias
